INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

March 22, 2004

The Member of
HealthPoint Advisors, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of HealthPoint Advisors, LLC as of December 31, 2003, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity and cash flow for the period February 27, 2003 (inception) through December 31, 2003 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of HealthPoint Advisors, LLC as of December 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period February 27, 2003 (inception) through December 31, 2003 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

HealthPoint Advisors, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

HealthPoint Advisors, LLC (the "Company") was organized on February 27, 2003 as a limited liability company ("LLC"), pursuant to the LLC Act of Delaware, and is wholly owned by HealthPoint, LLC. The Company is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker-dealer. The Company engages in merger and acquisition activity and private placements in the medical device industry with special emphasis in orthopedics.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is not subject to federal, state or local income taxes. The member is responsible for the tax liability, if any, related to the Company's taxable income. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state and local income taxes is included in the accompanying financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for assets and liabilities approximate fair value based on the short-term maturity of these instruments.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when service is provided.

2. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (8 to 1 in its first year of operations). Net capital and the related aggregate indebtedness ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of $23,961, which was $18,961 above its required net capital of $5,000.

3. Related Parties Transactions/Commitments

Service Agreement

The Company has an agreement with the Sole Member whereby the Sole Member provides the Company with office space, office property and equipment and administrative services. The charge for these services is at the Sole Member's cost plus depreciation expenses on certain office property and equipment. Such expenses are determined by mutual agreement with the Sole Member and are reflected as capital contributions in the Company until such time as the Sole Member notifies the Company that it will be obligated to pay the Sole Member.

The Member of
HealthPoint Advisors, LLC

In Planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of HealthPoint Advisors, LLC (the "Company"), for the period February 27, 2003 (inception) through December 31, 2003, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2003, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
